

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

BEAUTIES GATHER—Here are three of the lovely entrants in the Miami Bathing Beauty pageant, where pretty girls from many ports are assembling. Top, Miss Martha Hick, of Pittsfield, Mass., who is Miss Massachusetts; center, Miss Haydee Morales, just 16, who represents Nicaragua, her native land; below, Miss Mary Dean, an American girl, from the Canal Zone, which she will represent.

AT WAIKIKI—William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the treasury in the Wilson cabinet, is snapped with his family on the beach at Waikiki, Honolulu. The McAdoos have been winter vacationing in Hawaii.

DAILY SUNBATHS—Snow on the ground or not, this group of girls of a college of physical education, at Chicago, insists on a bath in the sunshine every day. They are Jane Harris, Jane Wood, Jean Larson, Frances Bilger, Flossie Hatfield, Grace Rivenback, Mildred Piper and Lillian Schlom.

NEWLY WEDS—These are newlyweds, as you perhaps have guessed, caught honeymooning at Cristobal, Canal Zone, after one of the most brilliant wedding ceremonies of their native land, Panama. They are Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Ernesto Arias, the bride being the former Yola Arosemena, daughter of Panama's president.

TIMBER TOPPERS—Over the hurdles in the first outdoor meet of the season on the west coast, Stanford university's timber toppers are shown competing against the Los Angeles Athletic club at Palo Alto, Smith, of Stanford, winning the event.

ICEBOUND, RETURN—Capt. Olaf Swenson, Mrs. Swenson and their 17-year-old daughter, Marion, are photographed at Seattle following their return from North Cape, Siberia, where they were icebound on the fur trader Nanuk. Carl Ben Eielson, Arctic pilot, and his companion, Earl Borland, met death in their attempts to rescue the crew of the icebound ship.

FUEL FOR RIDERS—No bologna is among this collection of meats at Madison Square Garden, New York. The butchers are those especially hired to prepare the meats for the bike riders in the six-day grind at the Garden.

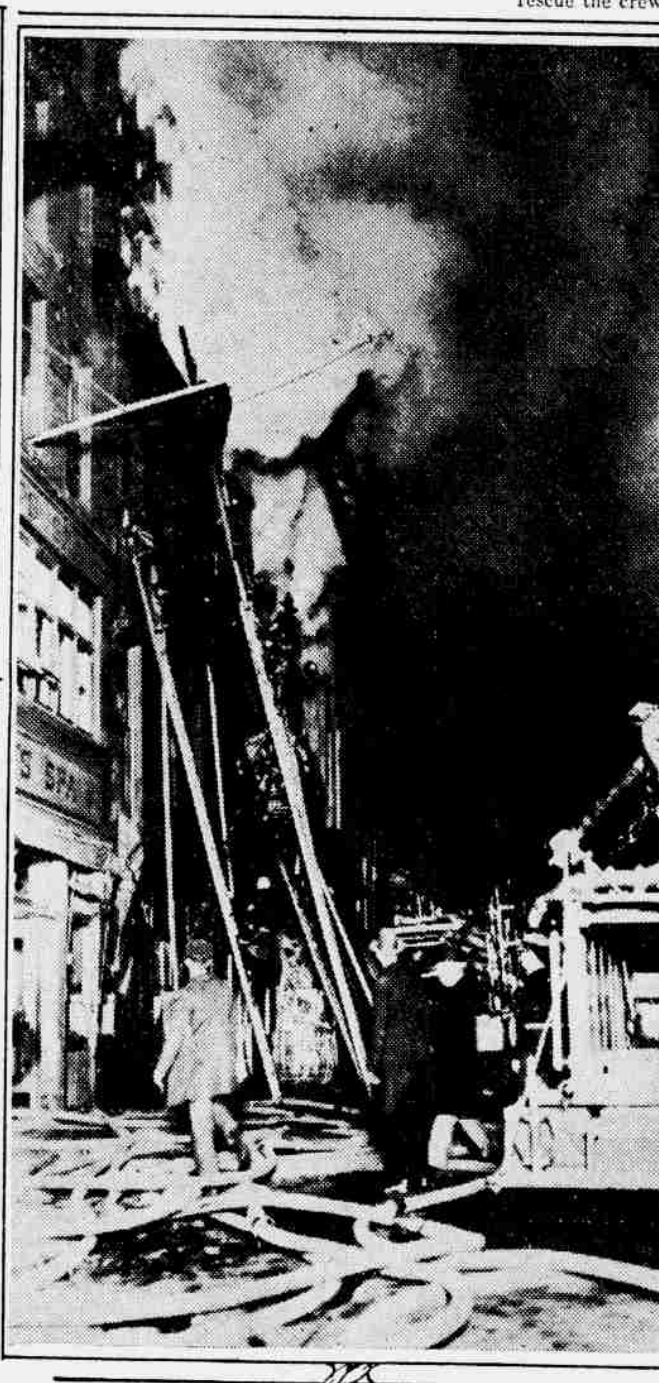

SHAKEN—Twisted walls and small piles of brick testify to the severity of a series of 22 earthquakes which shook Imperial Valley, southern California, over a period of three hours. Photo shows damage done to an apartment house at Brawley, Cal.

THRIFT STAMP TRIPLETS GROWING—This trio received national publicity at the time of their birth when President Wilson gave each $5 in thrift stamps in March, 1918. They now are celebrating their twelfth birthday anniversary, and are Blanche, Lester and Sylvia Rudy, of Chicago.

DEMOTRATIC NOMINEE?—Ohio Democrats have been toying with the name of Judge John Weld Peck, of Cincinnati, as a possible nominee of the party for the Ohio governorship. The judge is shown here with Mrs. Peck strolling the streets of St. Petersburg, Fla., where they are wintering.

SPECTACULAR—Boston's business district sees plenty of smoke and flames as firemen battle a $75,000 blaze in the downtown section.

GENE RECUPERATES—The retired heavyweight champion, Gene Tunney, is recovering from his bout with ole man operation, at Miami Beach, Fla. He still finds it necessary to walk with a cane.
